Purpose:

A written Code of Conduct for Council and local boards helps to ensure that the members of Council, advisory committees, and local boards of the municipality (as defined in the Municipal Act) share a common basis for acceptable conduct. This Code is designed to provide a reference guide and a supplement to the legislative parameters within which the members must operate. These standards should enhance public confidence that The Corporation of the Township of Jocelyn's elected and appointed representatives operate from a base of integrity, justice and courtesy. The key principles underlining the Code of Conduct are:

- a. All members shall serve and be seen to serve their constituents in a conscientious and diligent manner;
- b. Members should be committed to performing their functions with integrity and to avoiding the improper use of the influence of their office, and conflicts of interest, both real and apparent;
- c. Members are expected to perform their duties in office in a manner that promotes public confidence and will bear close public scrutiny;
- d. Members shall seek to serve the public interest by upholding both the letter and the spirit of the laws and policies established by the Federal Parliament, Ontario Legislature and Council.

Municipal Council members hold positions of privilege; therefore, they must discharge their duties in a manner that recognizes a fundamental commitment to the wellbeing of the community and regard for the integrity of the Corporation.
